

Call for New Board Members and Committee Volunteers

The Rotary Arts Centre (RAC) is seeking passionate individuals to join our Board of Directors and contribute their skills and expertise to various committees that support our mission of fostering creativity, community engagement, and artistic development in Corner Brook, Newfoundland.

About the Rotary Arts Centre

RAC is a vibrant arts organization in Corner Brook, offering a 100-seat theatre, two galleries, five artist studios, and community spaces. We provide diverse programs in visual arts, theatre, dance, music, and film, supporting both emerging and professional artists.

RAC is committed to community engagement, partnering with local schools, libraries, and various community groups to make the arts accessible to all. These collaborations create opportunities for creative experiences that reflect the region's diversity and foster inclusivity. Additionally, RAC honors and reflects Newfoundland's rich arts, culture, and heritage, elevating local voices through artistic expression.

Why Join?

RAC's Board of Directors plays a key role in overseeing operations, guiding strategic direction, and ensuring financial sustainability. Board members help shape the future of RAC and have the opportunity to make a meaningful impact on the arts community in Corner Brook.

Role of a Board Member

Board members provide governance, strategic leadership, and support RAC's long-term goals. Responsibilities include approving budgets, fundraising, policy development, and advising on key decisions. Meetings are held every two to three months, with additional involvement in special projects. Board members are expected to actively participate, contribute expertise, and advocate for RAC in the community.

Committees

RAC is also seeking volunteers for the following committees:

- Visual Arts Support
- Theatre Support
- Finances
- Fund Development
- Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Accessibility (IDEA)

Committee members work alongside RAC staff and Board members to support and develop programs, initiatives, and strategies aligned with RAC's mission.

Who Are We Looking For?

We are looking for individuals who share our passion for the arts and community. Board members should bring strategic thinking and expertise in areas such as governance, finance, fundraising, marketing, or community outreach. Volunteers with an interest in arts, finance, or inclusivity are encouraged to apply.

Diversity Statement

RAC is committed to creating an inclusive and welcoming environment for all individuals. We encourage applicants from diverse backgrounds and life experiences to apply, recognizing that a wide range of perspectives enriches our work and strengthens our community. We value diversity in all forms and aim to ensure that all voices are heard and respected in both our organization and the broader arts community.

How to Apply

To apply, please send a brief statement outlining your background, skills, and reasons for wanting to join to robert@rotaryartscentre.ca by April 30. Resumes are welcomed but not required. We encourage individuals from all backgrounds and experiences to apply.

For more information, visit <http://rotaryartscentre.ca>.

Join us in shaping the future of Corner Brook's arts community and fostering creativity that connects us all!